A GREAT INTEREST

REVIVAL AT BUCHANAN STREET M. E. CHURCH ATTRACTS CROWDS

WAS A GOOD SERMON

Dr. Foote Spoke on "The Cost of Discipleship"—"A Disciple is a Student in School of Christ."

While the revival has been in progress at the Buchanan Street Methodist church only three nights, the large congregation present last evening was an evidence of the interest which it is awakening in the community. A feature of the service was the spirit with which the congregation sang the Gospel hymns.

Dr. U. G. Foote, the Louisville pastor-evangelist, preached a telling sermon on "The Cost of Discipleship." He said in part:

"Discipleship is the universal relationship of believers in Christ. A disciple is a pupil, a learner, a student in the school of Christ. As the student in any school must obey his instructor so the disciple in the school of Christ must give obedience to his Master. This he must do from the realization that Christ has the supreme values of life to offer in return for the self-denial He exacts of His disciples. Christ gave up the glory He had with the Father. He came into the world as the son of a poor peasant; rejected satan's offer of the kingdoms of this world; He rejected the crown offered Him by His countrymen; He emptied himself and flung away ambition. Has He not the right to expect as much of His disciples?

"Taking up the cross is more than a mark or symbol of Christianity. It is more than an asserting faith in a crucified Savior. It is taking up the cross of Him who bore it, stumbling and falling to Calvary. We are to live a life of daily cross bearing. Dying daily is more than dying once Dying to self is living to Christ. "I die daily," said Paul, "nevertheless I live by the grace of God."

TWO DIVORCE CASES.

For the January Term of Circuit Court—One is the Thompson Case, the Other the Judd Case.

Two divorce cases were filed Thursday in Circuit Clerk Rathbun's office for the January term of circuit court.

Miriam R. Thompson is suing Cyrus S. Thompson. The petition states that they were married in Nodaway county on December 21, 1903, and lived together until September 26, 1909, when the defendant left without reasonable cause and has been absented for more than one year. The defendant is a non-resident of the state. The plaintiff prays for a divorce and custody and care of the minor child, Blanche M. Thompson. Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

Nellie M. Judd is suing James B. Judd for a divorce. The petition says that they were married in Andrew county on July 3, 1909, and lived together until May, 1912. The defendant, the petition claims, has absented himself for more than one year, and also offered such indignities as to render her condition intolerable in life. The plaintiff prays for a divorce and custody and care of a minor child, aged 2 years. Cook, Cummins & Dawson are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

Killed Forty-Six Snakes.

The Long grading crew that is straightening the road near the Wm. Friend farm, four miles nothwest of Hopkins, had an exciting time one day last week killing snakes. They were plowing and cutting down the bank of the creek near the Friend farm when they unearthed a den of reptiles, and killed forty six of them, to say nothing of the ones that made good their escape. Among the forty-six killed was one big rattler, besides species of other poisonous snakes, but the majority of the reptiles were harmless.—Hopkins Journal.

Judge and Mrs. Ira K. Alderman went to St. Joseph Thursday for a day's visit with their son, Dale V. Alderman.

EXHIBIT AT SHOWS

WRITES E. L. ANDREWS OF MARYVILLE IN MISSOURI FARMER.

A JUDGE OF POULTRY

By Having Your Fowls Scored You Know Just Where They Fall Short of Perfection.

Ed L. Andrews of this city has the following to say about the coming poultry show to be held in Maryville, and also about other poultry shows in the Missouri Farmer of Columbia of issue of November 15:

"The poultry show is a school of instruction. Every breeder of good poultry should exhibit a trio or pair of fowls at some poultry show. The shows are usually held in November and December and by having your fowls scored by a competent judge you know just where they fall short of perfection. You learn to know a disqualified bird when you see it. You learn how to mate your birds to produce better results. You meet and get in touch with poultry raisers in your own county as well as all parts of the state.

"Last spring the good poultry breeders of Nodaway county gave away seventy-five settings of eggs to boys and girls 15 years of age or younger who promised to exhibit a trio or more of birds raised from these eggs at the poultry show to be held in Maryville December 2 to 6, 1913. Over one-half of the youngsters have reported that they will be on hand with the required birds. Outside the regular premiums offered $25 will be given these young folks in prizes ranging from $5.00 down. You can readily see the interest this has created. It means many flocks of better poultry for next summer. It is an easy matter to take two good hens and raise 100 chicks from them to maturity. I have raised a good many more than that from two hens and didn't think I was doing very well at that. But whether you raise fancy stock or not make it a point to attend a poultry show this winter. It puts new chicken energy in you that you cannot well get from any other source. You see what others are doing and get the fever.

"The Northwest Missouri Poultry association is growing as it should. The entries are more and more each year. Last year we had 125 entries—and all classes well filled. This year the state show will be held in Kansas City, December 11 to 16. If you think that is a little large for you to tackle for the first time, put some leg bands on some of your best birds and send or take them to a smaller show. You will be more than repaid for your trouble and expense; it is a stepping stone to better poultry. Be up to date, be progressive, take advantage of opportunity. Study the hen and look after her welfare and your reward will be dollars and not cents.

ABOUT BILL AND BEAL.

What a St. Joseph Paper Says in Regard to W. F. Smith and G. B. Roseberry.

The following is from today's St. Joseph Gazette in regard to W. F. Smith and G. B. Roseberry, who attended the state Sunday school convention in St. Joseph Wednesday:

One of the best known visitors to the Missouri Sunday school convention at the Auditorium yesterday was a man with all of his face covered with a smile save that portion of it which was taken up with whiskers. The top of his head, too, where the hair had not done well, seemed to have a merry, cheery look. This visitor was from Maryville, and he was variously greeted by acquaintances—depending on the intimacy of their friendship for him—as "Mr. Smith," "Billy," and "The Official Handshaker of the First M. E. church of Maryville."

Probably he likes the latter title best of all, for it is said that Maryville Smith shakes hands with every man, woman and child who enters or leaves the door of the church of which he is a member, and where he has been superintendent of the Sunday school for the past fifteen years. That was why he was at the state convention here yesterday—seeing if they knew as much about the Sunday school business as he has learned in his long career as director of one of Maryville's big schools.

He is a great joker, is "Billy."

"Pleased to have you meet me!" is the greeting which he usually extends to strangers who enter the First Methodist Episcopal church for the first time. And then the visitor, who has been somewhat diffidently approaching the bewhiskered individual close to the door, smiles courageously and feels at home at once.

Yesterday morning, when the Maryville delegation to the convention assembled at the Burlington depot in the Nodaway county seat, it was found that the aggregation consisted of "Billy" and G. B. Roseberry, who is just as active in the Christian Sunday school, besides being one of Maryville's most prominent business men.

Looking the ranks of his cohorts over, "Billy" drew a newspaper reporter to one side and said:

"Here's a nice little story for you. Say in the paper today that "Billy" Smith went to the state Sunday school convention at St. Joseph at the head of the Nodaway county delegation, which was composed of Beal Roseberry!"

And "Billy" landed his party at the Auditorium without mishap, and in the evening took it back home safe and sound.

VISITED THEIR CHILDHOOD HOME

Five of the Children of Mrs. C. L. Wright Made Visit to Their Old Home Near Ravenwood.

Tuesday, for the first time in many years, five of the children of Mrs. C. L. Wright of this city visited their old childhood home three and one-half miles notheast of Ravenwood. The trip was made in Geo. Pat Wright's car and the party was composed of the following: H. B. Wright of Sedalia, Mrs. A. D. McHenry of St. Joseph, Mrs. Chas. Wilson of Muskogee, Okla., Geo. Pat Wright and Mrs. R. C. Seal of this city. The land was bought by their father, the late C. L. Wright when he first came to this country as a young man and was for years the Wright home and naturally to them many dear and hallowed memories cluster around the old place. They stopped in Ravenwood and visited with a number of old friends. No doubt but each one of them can truly say "how dear to this heart are the scenes of my childhood."

FARMERS' MEETING

BEING HELD AT RAVENWOOD IS WELL ATTENDED.

TO GATHER IN JANUARY

Short Talks on Agriculture and Other Matters of Interest—Others Want Meetings.

The farmers' meeting held at Ravenwood the past two days has been well attended, farmers from Clyde, Grantham and Harmony neighborhoods making up the crowd.

J. Kelly Wright spoke Tuesday night in the Christian church on the subject "When the Boy Becomes a Man" before a large audience. An oyster supper in the church followed. Wednesday morning W. P. Smoot spoke before the classes of the school on "The Selection of Corn for the Show." Mr. Wright gave an address on school sanitation. In the afternoon Mr. Smoot spoke of agriculture in general, ending with a short talk on alfalfa, and a round table discussion followed.

Owing to the fact that these meetings were so well attended, other meetings will be arranged for in January. A number from surrounding rural communities were at Ravenwood and asked for meetings in their neighborhood.

Prof. Orrel Duncan of the Ravenwood school and Rev. C. R. Green of the Harmony church are making plans to secure speakers for January for a meeting at Ravenwood.

JOSHUA MILLER BURIED HERE.

Death Occurred at Camden Point, After an Illness Since Last April.

The body of Joshua Miller, a former resident, was brought to Maryville Thursday morning on the Wabash train for burial. The services were held at 9 o'clock this morning in the Price-McNeal undertaking parlors, conducted by Rev. L. M. Hale of the Baptist church of this city. The burial service was in charge of the I. O. O. F. lodge, Chester Bennett of the Maryville lodge acting as chaplain. Assisting were Wm. Thomas, noble grand, and John Burton, vice grand, of the I. O. O. F. lodge at Camden Point. Burial took place in Miriam cemetery by the body of Mr. Miller's wife, who died in Maryville in 1902.

Mr. Miller was 67 years old and a native of Camden Point. He moved to Maryville in 1902 with his family and lived here one year. Mrs. Miller took sick suddenly after the family arrival here and death came in nine days. At that time Mr. Miller's son, Joseph F. Miller, was night operator at the Wabash depot in this city. After one year in company with his daughter, Miss Clara Miller, they returned to Camden Point, and later went to Shenandoah, Ia., and lived with his son, J. F. Miller, who is now the agent for the Wabash at that place. He is survived by his son and daughter, who are the only living children of a family of seven. Accompanying the body to Maryville were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Miller, Miss Clara Miller of Shenandoah, John Miller of Missouri City, Mo.; Mrs. H. A. Brady of Flemming, Mo.; Lee Miller of Atherton, Mo.; Hiram Brady of Richmond, Mo.; Mrs. Mary Folosso of Camden Point, Wm. Thomas and John Burton of Camden Point. An escort of Maryville Odd Fellows accompanied the body to the cemetery and the pall bearers were Alfred McNeal, John Awalt, H. B. Cox, John Vert, Howard Whaley and W. F. Smith.

Mr. Miller was an old soldier and served in the Forty-Fourth Missouri regiment until the close of the war. He went from Shenandoah to Camden Point last April on a visit with relatives and was taken ill there, dying of a complication of diseases Tuesday.

High Beef Next Spring.

Joe Holker, who has been in the cattle business in this county many years, predicts that prime beef cattle will be the highest next spring that was ever known. He attributes this to the fact that feed is so high that the farmers are afraid to buy cattle to feed this winter.

"Prime beef cattle will be worth between 10 and 10½ cents next spring," said Mr. Holker. "This prediction is based on the fact that there will be a scarcity of good beef stuff owing to the high price of feed, which prevents the farmers from feeding good cattle during the winter."—Hopkins Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kavanaugh and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Eckles of Graham were city visitors Thursday. They made the trip in the Kavanaugh car.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Greenlee and sons went to Pickering Thursday for a short visit with Mrs. Charles Shopbell and Mrs. Clinton McDowell.

HUNGRY FOR CHILD

OVER FORTY OFFERS MADE TO LITTLE DORA BELLE.

WHERE WILL SHE GO?

Prefers the Country, But She Cannot Decide on Home—Too Much Publicity for Her.

Many homes in Nodaway county and surrounding country must be hungry for children, for over forty offers have been made to 9-year-old Dora Belle, who is at the home of Mrs. Martha Denny. The little girl has been completely bewildered by the letters and calls from so many people who would like to have her in their home, that she is at a loss to know what to do about it.

"I will be so relieved when it is all settled," she said, Wednesday night in her quaint manner. "But, of course, I don't know where I am going yet. I want to go to the country and get away from all this confusion. I would rather live in the country than any place."

The children at the Garfield school, where Dora Belle attends daily, have thoughtlessly told her of the things they read in the papers about her and her need of a home, and have said a great many things thoughtlessly that have hurt her feelings, and she has cried about them and said she wished that she was away from it all. This is the principal reason, probably, that she wishes to go to the country. She has taken quite a fancy to a Maryville couple who would furnish her a good home and educate her, but she does not wish to stay in Maryville, because of the publicity she has received. Another couple whom she was attached to strongly from the first, lives in a country town not far away, and she has talked of them almost continuously since they called to see her Wednesday. Anyway, she will soon be in a home of her own.

As so many calls have been made for this little girls, Mrs. G. A. Nash wishes us to say that she will gladly furnish blanks to all who wish them from the Orphans' Home in St. Louis, and their application will be considered by the home authorities, who are in a position to find them just such a child as they desire.

The Terrible Tax Collector.

Our hoss is gone dead, and our mule is gone lame,
An' we lost our dog in a poker game;
Then a cyclone came 'long, t' other day,
An' blew the house where we lived away;
An earthquake followed when that was gone,
And' swallowed the spot that the house stood on.
Now, the durned tax collector, he's come aroun',
And made us pay on a hole in the groun'.

His Last Name First.

There was a new boy that morning, and the teacher began with the usual formula:

"What is your last name?"

"Arthur, ma'am."

"Arthur!" exclaimed the teacher. "What is your other name?"

"Cooke," said the boy.

"Then Cooke is your last name of course," said the teacher, looking at the boy with considerable severity.

"No'h," replied the child, respectfully. "My name was Cooke when I was born, but mother says they didn't name me 'Arthur' for most three months."—Lippincott's Magazine.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

PEOPLE SHOULD GUARD AGAINST APPENDICITIS.

Maryville people who have stomach and bowel trouble should guard against appendicitis by taking simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY because this simple mixture draws off such a surprising amount of old foul matter from the body. W. Jones, druggist. Druggist Shuff at Pickering reports great success there.—Advertisement.

HILLARD ON THE STAND

'Frisco Railroad Officials Build Lines and Sell to Company.

St. Louis, Nov. 20.—Charles W. Hillard of New York, for ten years vice president of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad and since 1885 vice president of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, was questioned at the interstate commerce commission's investigation of the 'Frisco receivership regarding the affairs of the Gulf Construction company.

This company, of which Mr. Hillard was president, was one of the syndicates that built or bought lines that later were sold to the 'Frisco.

Mr. Hillard said he had nothing to do with the management of the construction company, though the records showed he was elected president in 1905. The construction company was incorporated in 1905 to build the Colorado Southern, New Orleans and Pacific, later the New Orleans line of the 'Frisco.

Mr. Hillard admitted that large payment had been made by the Colorado Southern, New Orleans and Pacific to the construction company six months after the latter was formed, but he thought the construction company made only a moderate profit.

Chauffeur of Funeral Coach Arrested.

New York, Nov. 20.—A funeral procession was halted in Long Island City and the chauffeur of the automobile coach that headed it was arrested and convicted of exceeding the speed limit. The arrest was the outcome of many complaints that New York funeral processions on the way to the Calvary cemetery have been so speedy as to endanger the lives of persons crossing streets through which they pass.

Murder at Warrensburg.

Warrensburg, Mo., Nov. 20.—Thomas Hensley, a farmer near here, shot and killed his brother-in-law, David Ricker. The shooting resulted when Ricker went to the Hensley home for clothing for Mrs. Hensley, who had left her husband after a quarrel. Hensley escaped.

HUERTA READS HIS MESSAGE

Napoleon Quoted by Dictator to Justify Dissolving Congress.

NO REFERENCE TO WASHINGTON

Conference Between Constitutional Cabinet and President Wilson's Envoy at Nogales Is Abruptly Broken Off—Carranza Leaves for South.

Mexico City, Nov. 20.—President Huerta in his message to congress today quoted Napoleon in justification of his arbitrary dissolution of the old congress, and he served notice that he will ask the new congress to grant him a political bill of health.

Not even a reference to international relations was made in the message. The president confined himself entirely to a review of the incidents leading to the dissolution of the old congress and justification for his act. What may be regarded as a hint of the delicate situation which Mexico as a nation is occupying appeared in the conclusion of the message, when he reminded the congressmen that the moment is a solemn one and possibly decisive for the future of the nation. In this connection the president said that the eyes of all the people of Mexico, as well as those of the civilized world, are upon them.

The message closed with an expression of the hope that soon all Mexicans may be united and that all may join in the task of national reconstruction.

Did Utmost to Prevent Rupture.

The message explains that the executive did all in his poyer to prevent a rupture and to maintain good relations with congress, yielding in more than one instance and attempting in many ways to bring about a more cordial feeling of co-operation.

According to President Huerta, "congress became in fact the center of revolutionary activity a sort of open agency for northern rebels engaged with arms in slaughter and pillage and, what is worse still, in the task of bleeding the fatherland, to expose it, in its weakness and poverty, to danger from abroad; took an attitude of opposition against the government in the work it was attempting and usurped not only the province of the judicial power, but also that of the executive, seconding in this manner the nefarious activity of the rebels."

Chose Not to Vacillate.

The president said that he chose not to vacillate under these conditions and resorted at last to the extreme measure of dissolving congress, using the necessary rigor to face such a delicate situation and called elections.

Defending his action, General Huerta said it will always be a novel act and argued that in any case it is preferrable to save the nation, even at the sacrifice of principles, than to preserve intact, at the expense of the people, the rigid, inert precept of justice, the utility of which may be open to controversy.

In this connection he quoted Napoleon to the effect that "The law is not violated when you save the fatherland."

Carranza Leaves for South.

Nogales, Sonora, Nov. 20.—General Venustiano Carranza, civil and military head of the revolution, left on a special train for the south. Earlier in the day William Bayard Hale, who has acted as President Wilson's personal spokesman in the diplomatic exchanges during the last week, had taken his departure for Nogales, Ariz. Thus ended the dealings between the Mexican insurgents and the American government.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair Gets Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant at Once—No More Falling Hair.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, beside it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Advertisement.

A GREAT INTEREST

REVIVAL AT BUCHANAN STREET M. E. CHURCH ATTRACTS CROWDS

WAS A GOOD SERMON

Dr. Foote Spoke on "The Cost of Discipleship"—"A Disciple is a Student in School of Christ."

While the revival has been in progress at the Buchanan Street Methodist church only three nights, the large congregation present last evening was an evidence of the interest which it is awakening in the community. A feature of the service was the spirit with which the congregation sang the Gospel hymns.

Dr. U. G. Foote, the Louisville pastor-evangelist, preached a telling sermon on "The Cost of Discipleship." He said in part:

"Discipleship is the universal relationship of believers in Christ. A disciple is a pupil, a learner, a student in the school of Christ. As the student in any school must obey his instructor so the disciple in the school of Christ must give obedience to his Master. This he must do from the realization that Christ has the supreme values of life to offer in return for the self-denial He exacts of His disciples. Christ gave up the glory He had with the Father. He came into the world as the son of a poor peasant; rejected satan's offer of the kingdoms of this world; He rejected the crown offered Him by His countrymen; He emptied himself and flung away ambition. Has He not the right to expect as much of His disciples?

"Taking up the cross is more than a mark or symbol of Christianity. It is more than an asserting faith in a crucified Savior. It is taking up the cross of Him who bore it, stumbling and falling to Calvary. We are to live a life of daily cross bearing. Dying daily is more than dying once Dying to self is living to Christ. "I die daily," said Paul, "nevertheless I live by the grace of God."

TWO DIVORCE CASES.

For the January Term of Circuit Court—One is the Thompson Case, the Other the Judd Case.

Two divorce cases were filed Thursday in Circuit Clerk Rathbun's office for the January term of circuit court.

Miriam R. Thompson is suing Cyrus S. Thompson. The petition states that they were married in Nodaway county on December 21, 1903, and lived together until September 26, 1909, when the defendant left without reasonable cause and has been absented for more than one year. The defendant is a non-resident of the state. The plaintiff prays for a divorce and custody and care of the minor child, Blanche M. Thompson. Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

Nellie M. Judd is suing James B. Judd for a divorce. The petition says that they were married in Andrew county on July 3, 1909, and lived together until May, 1912. The defendant, the petition claims, has absented himself for more than one year, and also offered such indignities as to render her condition intolerable in life. The plaintiff prays for a divorce and custody and care of a minor child, aged 2 years. Cook, Cummins & Dawson are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

Killed Forty-Six Snakes.

The Long grading crew that is straightening the road near the Wm. Friend farm, four miles nothwest of Hopkins, had an exciting time one day last week killing snakes. They were plowing and cutting down the bank of the creek near the Friend farm when they unearthed a den of reptiles, and killed forty six of them, to say nothing of the ones that made good their escape. Among the forty-six killed was one big rattler, besides species of other poisonous snakes, but the majority of the reptiles were harmless.—Hopkins Journal.

EXHIBIT AT SHOWS

WRITES E. L. ANDREWS OF MARYVILLE IN MISSOURI FARMER.

A JUDGE OF POULTRY

By Having Your Fowls Scored You Know Just Where They Fall Short of Perfection.

Ed L. Andrews of this city has the following to say about the coming poultry show to be held in Maryville, and also about other poultry shows in the Missouri Farmer of Columbia of issue of November 15:

"The poultry show is a school of instruction. Every breeder of good poultry should exhibit a trio or pair of fowls at some poultry show. The shows are usually held in November and December and by having your fowls scored by a competent judge you know just where they fall short of perfection. You learn to know a disqualified bird when you see it. You learn how to mate your birds to produce better results. You meet and get in touch with poultry raisers in your own county as well as all parts of the state.

"Last spring the good poultry breeders of Nodaway county gave away seventy-five settings of eggs to boys and girls 15 years of age or younger who promised to exhibit a trio or more of birds raised from these eggs at the poultry show to be held in Maryville December 2 to 6, 1913. Over one-half of the youngsters have reported that they will be on hand with the required birds. Outside the regular premiums offered $25 will be given these young folks in prizes ranging from $5.00 down. You can readily see the interest this has created. It means many flocks of better poultry for next summer. It is an easy matter to take two good hens and raise 100 chicks from them to maturity. I have raised a good many more than that from two hens and didn't think I was doing very well at that. But whether you raise fancy stock or not make it a point to attend a poultry show this winter. It puts new chicken energy in you that you cannot well get from any other source. You see what others are doing and get the fever.

"The Northwest Missouri Poultry association is growing as it should. The entries are more and more each year. Last year we had 125 entries—and all classes well filled. This year the state show will be held in Kansas City, December 11 to 16. If you think that is a little large for you to tackle for the first time, put some leg bands on some of your best birds and send or take them to a smaller show. You will be more than repaid for your trouble and expense; it is a stepping stone to better poultry. Be up to date, be progressive, take advantage of opportunity. Study the hen and look after her welfare and your reward will be dollars and not cents.

Came to Hear Dr. Foote.

Rev. Marvin DeWitt, pastor of the M. E. church south of Barnard, came to Maryville Wednesday noon and was the guest of Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church until Thursday morning. Rev. DeWitt came to hear Dr. U. G. ABOUT BILL AND BEAL.

What a St. Joseph Paper Says in Regard to W. F. Smith and G. B. Roseberry.

The following is from today's St. Joseph Gazette in regard to W. F. Smith and G. B. Roseberry, who attended the state Sunday school convention in St. Joseph Wednesday:

One of the best known visitors to the Missouri Sunday school convention at the Auditorium yesterday was a man with all of his face covered with a smile save that portion of it which was taken up with whiskers. The top of his head, too, where the hair had not done well, seemed to have a merry, cheery look. This visitor was from Maryville, and he was variously greeted by acquaintances—depending on the intimacy of their friendship for him—as "Mr. Smith," "Billy," and "The Official Handshaker of the First M. E. church of Maryville."

Probably he likes the latter title best of all, for it is said that Maryville Smith shakes hands with every man, woman and child who enters or leaves the door of the church of which he is a member, and where he has been superintendent of the Sunday school for the past fifteen years. That was why he was at the state convention here yesterday—seeing if they knew as much about the Sunday school business as he has learned in his long career as director of one of Maryville's big schools.

He is a great joker, is "Billy."

"Pleased to have you meet me!" is the greeting which he usually extends to strangers who enter the First Methodist Episcopal church for the first time. And then the visitor, who has been somewhat diffidently approaching the bewhiskered individual close to the door, smiles courageously and feels at home at once.

Yesterday morning, when the Maryville delegation to the convention assembled at the Burlington depot in the Nodaway county seat, it was found that the aggregation consisted of "Billy" and G. B. Roseberry, who is just as active in the Christian Sunday school, besides being one of Maryville's most prominent business men.

Looking the ranks of his cohorts over, "Billy" drew a newspaper reporter to one side and said:

"Here's a nice little story for you. Say in the paper today that "Billy" Smith went to the state Sunday school convention at St. Joseph at the head of the Nodaway county delegation, which was composed of Beal Roseberry!"

And "Billy" landed his party at the Auditorium without mishap, and in the evening took it back home safe and sound.

VISITED THEIR CHILDHOOD HOME

Five of the Children of Mrs. C. L. Wright Made Visit to Their Old Home Near Ravenwood.

Tuesday, for the first time in many years, five of the children of Mrs. C. L. Wright of this city visited their old childhood home three and one-half miles notheast of Ravenwood. The trip was made in Geo. Pat Wright's car and the party was composed of the following: H. B. Wright of Sedalia, Mrs. A. D. McHenry of St. Joseph, Mrs. Chas. Wilson of Muskogee, Okla., Geo. Pat Wright and Mrs. R. C. Seal of this city. The land was bought by their father, the late C. L. Wright when he first came to this country as a young man and was for years the Wright home and naturally to them many dear and hallowed memories cluster around the old place. They stopped in Ravenwood and visited with a number of old friends. No doubt but each one of them can truly say "how dear to this heart are the scenes of my childhood."

FARMERS' MEETING

BEING HELD AT RAVENWOOD IS WELL ATTENDED.

TO GATHER IN JANUARY

Short Talks on Agriculture and Other Matters of Interest—Others Want Meetings.

The farmers' meeting held at Ravenwood the past two days has been well attended, farmers from Clyde, Grantham and Harmony neighborhoods making up the crowd.

J. Kelly Wright spoke Tuesday night in the Christian church on the subject "When the Boy Becomes a Man" before a large audience. An oyster supper in the church followed. Wednesday morning W. P. Smoot spoke before the classes of the school on "The Selection of Corn for the Show." Mr. Wright gave an address on school sanitation. In the afternoon Mr. Smoot spoke of agriculture in general, ending with a short talk on alfalfa, and a round table discussion followed.

Owing to the fact that these meetings were so well attended, other meetings will be arranged for in January. A number from surrounding rural communities were at Ravenwood and asked for meetings in their neighborhood.

Prof. Orrel Duncan of the Ravenwood school and Rev. C. R. Green of the Harmony church are making plans to secure speakers for January for a meeting at Ravenwood.

JOSHUA MILLER BURIED HERE.

Death Occurred at Camden Point, After an Illness Since Last April.

The body of Joshua Miller, a former resident, was brought to Maryville Thursday morning on the Wabash train for burial. The services were held at 9 o'clock this morning in the Price-McNeal undertaking parlors, conducted by Rev. L. M. Hale of the Baptist church of this city. The burial service was in charge of the I. O. O. F. lodge, Chester Bennett of the Maryville lodge acting as chaplain. Assisting were Wm. Thomas, noble grand, and John Burton, vice grand, of the I. O. O. F. lodge at Camden Point. Burial took place in Miriam cemetery by the body of Mr. Miller's wife, who died in Maryville in 1902.

Mr. Miller was 67 years old and a native of Camden Point. He moved to Maryville in 1902 with his family and lived here one year. Mrs. Miller took sick suddenly after the family arrival here and death came in nine days. At that time Mr. Miller's son, Joseph F. Miller, was night operator at the Wabash depot in this city. After one year in company with his daughter, Miss Clara Miller, they returned to Camden Point, and later went to Shenandoah, Ia., and lived with his son, J. F. Miller, who is now the agent for the Wabash at that place. He is survived by his son and daughter, who are the only living children of a family of seven. Accompanying the body to Maryville were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Miller, Miss Clara Miller of Shenandoah, John Miller of Missouri City, Mo.; Mrs. H. A. Brady of Flemming, Mo.; Lee Miller of Atherton, Mo.; Hiram Brady of Richmond, Mo.; Mrs. Mary Folosso of Camden Point, Wm. Thomas and John Burton of Camden Point. An escort of Maryville Odd Fellows accompanied the body to the cemetery and the pall bearers were Alfred McNeal, John Awalt, H. B. Cox, John Vert, Howard Whaley and W. F. Smith.

Mr. Miller was an old soldier and served in the Forty-Fourth Missouri regiment until the close of the war. He went from Shenandoah to Camden Point last April on a visit with relatives and was taken ill there, dying of a complication of diseases Tuesday.

High Beef Next Spring.

Joe Holker, who has been in the cattle business in this county many years, predicts that prime beef cattle will be the highest next spring that was ever known. He attributes this to the fact that feed is so high that the farmers are afraid to buy cattle to feed this winter.

"Prime beef cattle will be worth between 10 and 10½ cents next spring," said Mr. Holker. "This prediction is based on the fact that there will be a scarcity of good beef stuff owing to the high price of feed, which prevents the farmers from feeding good cattle during the winter."—Hopkins Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kavanaugh and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Eckles of Graham were city visitors Thursday. They made the trip in the Kavanaugh car.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Greenlee and sons went to Pickering Thursday for a short visit with Mrs. Charles Shopbell and Mrs. Clinton McDowell.

HUNGRY FOR CHILD

OVER FORTY OFFERS MADE TO LITTLE DORA BELLE.

WHERE WILL SHE GO?

Prefers the Country, But She Cannot Decide on Home—Too Much Publicity for Her.

Many homes in Nodaway county and surrounding country must be hungry for children, for over forty offers have been made to 9-year-old Dora Belle, who is at the home of Mrs. Martha Denny. The little girl has been completely bewildered by the letters and calls from so many people who would like to have her in their home, that she is at a loss to know what to do about it.

"I will be so relieved when it is all settled," she said, Wednesday night in her quaint manner. "But, of course, I don't know where I am going yet. I want to go to the country and get away from all this confusion. I would rather live in the country than any place."

The children at the Garfield school, where Dora Belle attends daily, have thoughtlessly told her of the things they read in the papers about her and her need of a home, and have said a great many things thoughtlessly that have hurt her feelings, and she has cried about them and said she wished that she was away from it all. This is the principal reason, probably, that she wishes to go to the country. She has taken quite a fancy to a Maryville couple who would furnish her a good home and educate her, but she does not wish to stay in Maryville, because of the publicity she has received. Another couple whom she was attached to strongly from the first, lives in a country town not far away, and she has talked of them almost continuously since they called to see her Wednesday. Anyway, she will soon be in a home of her own.

As so many calls have been made for this little girls, Mrs. G. A. Nash wishes us to say that she will gladly furnish blanks to all who wish them from the Orphans' Home in St. Louis, and their application will be considered by the home authorities, who are in a position to find them just such a child as they desire.

The Terrible Tax Collector.

Our boss is gone dead, and our mule is gone lame,
An' we lost our dog in a poker game;
Then a cyclone came 'long, t' other day,
An' blew the house where we lived away;
An earthquake followed when that was gone,
And' swallowed the spot that the house stood on.
Now, the durned tax collector, he's come aroun',
And made us pay on a hole in the groun'.

His Last Name First.

There was a new boy that morning, and the teacher began with the usual formula:

"What is your last name?"

"Arthur, ma'am."

"Arthur!" exclaimed the teacher. "What is your other name?"

"Cooke," said the boy.

"Then Cooke is your last name of course," said the teacher, looking at the boy with considerable severity.

"No'h," replied the child, respectfully. "My name was Cooke when I was born, but mother says they didn't name me 'Arthur' for most three months."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Ravenwood Editor in Town.

F. G. Graf, editor of the Ravenwood Gazette, was in Maryville Wednesday. Mr. Graf is a good newspaper man and is getting out a fine paper at Ravenwood.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.

PEOPLE SHOULD GUARD AGAINST APPENDICITIS.

Maryville people who have stomach and bowel trouble should guard against appendicitis by taking simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-i-ka, the German remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY because this simple mixture draws off such a surprising amount of old foul matter from the body. W. Jones, druggist. HILLARD ON THE STAND

'Frisco Railroad Officials Build Lines and Sell to Company.

St. Louis, Nov. 20.—Charles W. Hillard of New York, for ten years vice president of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad and since 1885 vice president of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, was questioned at the interstate commerce commission's investigation of the 'Frisco receivership regarding the affairs of the Gulf Construction company.

This company, of which Mr. Hillard was president, was one of the syndicates that built or bought lines that later were sold to the 'Frisco.

Mr. Hillard said he had nothing to do with the management of the construction company, though the records showed he was elected president in 1905. The construction company was incorporated in 1905 to build the Colorado Southern, New Orleans and Pacific, later the New Orleans line of the 'Frisco.

Mr. Hillard admitted that large payment had been made by the Colorado Southern, New Orleans and Pacific to the construction company six months after the latter was formed, but he thought the construction company made only a moderate profit.

Chauffeur of Funeral Coach Arrested.

New York, Nov. 20.—A funeral procession was halted in Long Island City and the chauffeur of the automobile coach that headed it was arrested and convicted of exceeding the speed limit. The arrest was the outcome of many complaints that New York funeral processions on the way to the Calvary cemetery have been so speedy as to endanger the lives of persons crossing streets through which they pass.

Murder at Warrensburg.

Warrensburg, Mo., Nov. 20.—Thomas Hensley, a farmer near here, shot and killed his brother-in-law, David Ricker. The shooting resulted when Ricker went to the Hensley home for clothing for Mrs. Hensley, who had left her husband after a quarrel. Hensley escaped.

HUERTA READS HIS MESSAGE

Napoleon Quoted by Dictator to Justify Dissolving Congress.

NO REFERENCE TO WASHINGTON

Conference Between Constitutional Cabinet and President Wilson's Envoy at Nogales Is Abruptly Broken Off—Carranza Leaves for South.

Mexico City, Nov. 20.—President Huerta in his message to congress today quoted Napoleon in justification of his arbitrary dissolution of the old congress, and he served notice that he will ask the new congress to grant him a political bill of health.

Not even a reference to international relations was made in the message. The president confined himself entirely to a review of the incidents leading to the dissolution of the old congress and justification for his act. What may be regarded as a hint of the delicate situation which Mexico as a nation is occupying appeared in the conclusion of the message, when he reminded the congressmen that the moment is a solemn one and possibly decisive for the future of the nation. In this connection the president said that the eyes of all the people of Mexico, as well as those of the civilized world, are upon them.

The message closed with an expression of the hope that soon all Mexicans may be united and that all may join in the task of national reconstruction.

Did Utmost to Prevent Rupture.

The message explains that the executive did all in his poyer to prevent a rupture and to maintain good relations with congress, yielding in more than one instance and attempting in many ways to bring about a more cordial feeling of co-operation.

According to President Huerta, "congress became in fact the center of revolutionary activity a sort of open agency for northern rebels engaged with arms in slaughter and pillage and, what is worse still, in the task of bleeding the fatherland, to expose it, in its weakness and poverty, to danger from abroad; took an attitude of opposition against the government in the work it was attempting and usurped not only the province of the judicial power, but also that of the executive, seconding in this manner the nefarious activity of the rebels."

Chose Not to Vacillate.

The president said that he chose not to vacillate under these conditions and resorted at last to the extreme measure of dissolving congress, using the necessary rigor to face such a delicate situation and called elections.

Defending his action, General Huerta said it will always be a novel act and argued that in any case it is preferrable to save the nation, even at the sacrifice of principles, than to preserve intact, at the expense of the people, the rigid, inert precept of justice, the utility of which may be open to controversy.

In this connection he quoted Napoleon to the effect that "The law is not violated when you save the fatherland."

Carranza Leaves for South.

Nogales, Sonora, Nov. 20.—General Venustiano Carranza, civil and military head of the revolution, left on a special train for the south. Earlier in the day William Bayard Hale, who has acted as President Wilson's personal spokesman in the diplomatic exchanges during the last week, had taken his departure for Nogales, Ariz. Thus ended the dealings between the Mexican insurgents and the American government.

CAUGHT IN OWN BEAR TRAP

Body of Former Denver Man Stripped of Flesh by Animals.

Denver, Nov. 20.—Caught by both arms in his own bear trap while on a hunting trip in the mountains near Embudo, N. M., Henry Severson, formerly of Denver, fought against death by starvation and thirst or wild animals for several days before he finally succumbed.

News of the finding of his body, torn into shreds by the claws of mountain lions and wildcats, has just been received here by friends. Severson was wealthy and had many friends in Denver.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair Gets Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant at Once—No More Falling Hair.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, beside it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?—Advertisement.

Mrs. J. B. Moore went to Kansas City Wednesday evening to visit her daughter, Miss Blanche Moore, and was accompanied as far as St. Joseph by her daughter, Mrs. Will Wyant.
